Become a member of the largest Christian business men's organisation in the world and reach your full potential in Christ!

The Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International (FGBMFI) is a non-profit organisation committed to reaching colleagues in business with a message of truth, hope and love through the gospel of Jesus Christ.

From its humble beginnings, one small chapter in Los Angeles, California, in 1951, it grew quickly into a worldwide organisation in more than 152 nations in all continents of the world. The Fellowship's remarkable history is unique and told in the classic, inspirational book, 'The Happiest People on Earth'.

Since 1960, Chapters in Australia have been active in cities, suburbs, and country towns impacting thousands of businesses, its leaders and employees, with a powerful, life changing message.

Chapter meetings are a departure from the normal Christian gathering. They usually take place in the warm surroundings of a restaurant or hotel banquet room. The meeting is relaxed and informal. A featured speaker gives a talk, and other men tell about the good things God is doing in their lives.

Some of the speakers you might hear include:

- Peter Pollock, retired South African cricketer.
- Charles Rockefeller, cancer survivor
- Shaun Hart, 3 times AFL premiership player and Norm Smith Medalist.
- Ian McCormack, raised from the dead
- Johnny Lee-Clary, former leader of the Klu Klux Klan.
- Mark Mudri, prominent Australian lawyer
